ITINERARY:

Day 01: Arrive Delhi

On arrival at Delhi airport, meet and greet by our representative and transfer to the Hotel. Delhi is one of the oldest continually inhabited cities in the world. Having been the capital of several empires in ancient India, Delhi was a major city in the old trade routes from northwest India to the Gangetic Plains. As the seat of the Government of India, New Delhi houses important offices of the federal government, including the Parliament of India. Overnight at the hotel.

Day 02: Delhi

Post Breakfast, proceed for the Old Delhi including visits to Raj Ghat - the cremation site of Mahatma Gandhi – Father of the Nation, Jama Mosque (the largest mosque in India) including cycle-rickshaw ride at Chandni Chowk (the walled city), drive pass through Red Fort (once the most opulent Fort and Palace of the Mughal Empire). Later proceed for the guided city tour of New Delhi including visits to Qutab Minar, Humayun's Tomb, photo-stop at India Gate and drive pass through Parliament house, President House & Government Buildings. Overnight at the hotel.

Day 03: Delhi/Jaipur (By Surface)

Post Breakfast, check-out and drive to Jaipur (260 kms/5hrs) Jaipur, popularly known as Pink City, colourful capital of Rajasthan. With its rich & colourful past, resplendent with tales of valour & bravery, it is now one of the most important heritage cities in India. The city was founded in the year 1728 by Maharaja Sawai Jai Singh II, the ruler of Amber. On arrival transfer to hotel. Overnight at the hotel.

Day 04: Jaipur

Breakfast at hotel. Proceed for an excursion to Amber Fort. Experience Elephant Ride (one way while going up-hill and subject to availability) at Amber Fort. Afternoon guided city tour of Jaipur visiting the City Palace, the Observatory and drive pass "Hawa Mahal" - Palace of Winds. Enjoy shopping at the local market in Jaipur. Overnight at the hotel.

Day 05: Jaipur/ Fatehpur Sikri/ Agra (By Surface)

Breakfast at hotel. Check-out and drive to Agra (approx. 235 Kms/05 Hrs), en route visiting Fatehpur Sikri. Post visit, continue your drive towards Agra. Agra is famous as being home to one of the Seven Wonders of the World-the Taj Mahal. The architectural splendour of the mausoleums, the fort and the palaces is a vivid remainder of the capital in the 16th and early 17th centuries. On arrival in Agra, check in at the hotel. Overnight at the hotel.

Day 06: Agra

Breakfast at Hotel and proceed for guided tour visiting Taj Mahal. It took 22 years for approx 20,000 men to build this masterpiece. Taj Mahal is built by Mughal Emperor Shahjahan in 1630 to enshrine the mortal remains of his Queen Mumtaz Mahal (closed every Friday). Later, visit magnificent Agra Fort. Overnight at the hotel.

Day 07: Agra/Delhi (By Surface)

Breakfast at hotel. Check-out and drive to Delhi (approx. 204 Km/4 Hrs). Upon arrival in Delhi transfer to International airport in time to connect your flight for onward destination

Day 04: Paro: Taktsang Hike

Today you will hike to Taktsang Goempa (Tiger's Nest Monastery), the most famous tourist destination in Bhutan. It takes around 30 minutes' drive from Paro town to the Parking lot. The hike upto the viewpoint will take about 1 1/2 hours from the parking lot and from there you will enjoy a spectacular view of the monastery clinging to the side of the cliff. You will stop here for refreshments and then hike further upto the monastery which should take another 1 1/2 hours. It was first built in 1692, around the Taktsang Sengge Samdup, a cave where Guru Padmasambhava is said to have meditated for three months in the 8th century. It is believed that Guru Rinpoche (Guru Padmasambhava) flew to this location from Khenpajong, Tibet on the back of a tigress and subdued a demon. He then performed meditation in one of the caves here and emerged in eight incarnated forms (manifestations) and blessed the place. Subsequently, the place came to be known as the "Tiger's Nest". Guru Padmasambhava is known for introducing Buddhism to Bhutan. Today, Paro Taktsang is the best known of the thirteen caves in which he meditated. After visiting the monastery, walk back downhill to the road with lunch at the viewpoint cafeteria.

Later visit Kichu temple, one of the 108 temples built in the 7th century by the Tibetan King Songsten Gampo. The story goes that a giant demon lay across the whole area of Tibet and the Himalayas and was preventing the spread of Buddhism. To overcome her, King Songtsen Gampo decided to build 108 temples, which would be placed on all the points of her body. Of these 108 temples, 2 were built in Bhutan. Overnight at a hotel in Paro.

You will be introduced to different spices and shown how some of these spices are grown and processed. Kandy, founded in the 14th century, is the southern tip of Sri Lanka's 'Cultural Triangle'. The city became the capital of the kingdom in 1592, during a troubled time when many of the islanders were fleeing to the interior, away from the coastal areas the European powers were fighting over. Although taken several times, the city remained one of the bastions of Sinhalese independence until the British troops entered it on 14 February 1815. From Vimala Dharma Suriya I (1591-1604) to Sri Wickrama Rajasinghe (1798-1815), it was the last seat of royal power. It remains the religious capital of Buddhism and a sacred city for millions of believers. Enshrined in the Dalada Maligawa is the relic of the tooth of Buddha which has long been greatly venerated. Dinner & Overnight stay at the hotel.

Day 05: Kandy-Colombo

Post breakfast, proceed to Colombo (120Kms/Approx 03:30 Hrs).

Colombo - like many capital cities in developing countries Colombo is fast changing its face. Almost overnight, skyscrapers arise from where old buildings once stood, yet in some parts, the old-world charm is retained. A 100-year-old clock tower and several British built, colonial buildings are still to be seen in the city. The Pettah bazaar - where one can shop for bargains, a Hindu and a Buddhist temple, residential areas where you find the state ly homes of the affluent, the Colombo museum, the Bandaranaike memorial international conference hall - an outright gift to Sri Lanka from the people's republic of china, the new parliament in Sri Jayawardenapura and the folk art center are some of the places of interest that one can visit to. Dinner & Overnight stay at the hotel.

Day 06: Depart Colombo

Post breakfast at the hotel, transfer to airport to onboard flight.

Maldives

The Maldives is a tropical nation in the Indian Ocean composed of 26 ring-shaped atolls, which are made up of more than 1,000 coral islands. It's known for its beaches, blue lagoons and extensive reefs. Its capital is Malé, has a busy fish market, restaurants and shops on the main road, Majeedhee Magu, and 17th-century Hukuru Miskiy (also known as Friday Mosque) made of carved white coral.

Maldives has one of great beaches and has some of the best diving and snorkelling in the world, the clear waters of Maldives are a magnet for anyone with an interest in marine life. The richness and variety is astonishing; dazzling coral walls, magnificent caves and schools of brightly coloured tropical fish await you when you get down to the reef.
